(1) Both parties shall strictly abide by the Anti-Unfair Competition Law of the People's Republic of China and the relevant provisions of the national competent authorities on prohibiting commercial bribery, and put an end to commercial bribery and other unfair competition acts. Neither party shall provide the other party's relevant personnel with any benefits other than those agreed in the contract. During the performance of this contract, Party B shall not sign false contracts (including but not limited to supplementary agreements and orders), falsely issue invoices or other financial Vouchers, assistance in falsely listing costs and expenses to obtain funds, commercial bribery or similar illegal and improper behaviors. Once such behavior is discovered, Party A has the right to: (1) terminate part or all of the contract (including the orders under the contract) and require Party B to compensate all losses;(2) (2)Party B will be included in the "blacklist" of Party A's cooperation for unified management. Depending on the degree of damage to the rights and interests of postal enterprises by its improper behavior, Party B will be prohibited from entering into comprehensive business cooperation, and it will not be allowed to participate in the economic and business dealings of Party A and its institutions at all levels within a certain period of time or permanently.

(2) Party B fully understands, promises and agrees that Party B is not a "postal enterprise employee handling enterprise", otherwise this contract will be invalid from the beginning except for the compensation clause. A "postal enterprise employee-managed enterprise" refers to an enterprise that meets the following conditions at the same time: (1) it has no investment relationship with a postal enterprise;(2) (2)Leaders of postal enterprises and their close relatives or other people closely related to the leaders, employees of postal enterprises hold shares (limited to non-listed companies), or serve as legal representatives/responsible persons, chairman, general managers and supervisors in their personal capacity (except those appointed by organizations), as well as enterprises established by trade unions or employees of postal enterprises collectively.

Article 15 Settlement of Disputes

Any dispute arising from this contract between the two parties shall be settled through negotiation. If negotiation fails, either party may bring a lawsuit to the people's court with jurisdiction over Party A's domicile according to law; Both parties shall continue to perform their obligations under this contract until the award becomes effective.

Article 16 Supplementary Provisions

(1) The attachments to this contract as well as the procurement documents, response documents and letters of commitment of this project are effective components of this contract. The priority of interpretation of each document is as follows:

1. This contract and its annexes. In case of any inconsistency between the attachments of this joint contract and the main text agreement of the contract, the main text of the contract shall prevail. If the contents of Party B's response document are inconsistent with the agreement in this contract, if Party B's response commitment is better than the agreement in this contract, the contents of Party B's response document shall prevail; If Party B's response commitment is inferior to the agreement in this contract, the agreement in this contract shall prevail;

2. Response documents and letters of commitment; 3. Procurement documents

(2) If there are invalid, invalid or unperformable clauses in this contract, the invalid, invalid or unperformable clauses will not affect the validity and performance of other clauses of this contract.

(3) This contract shall be signed and sealed by the legal representatives or authorized representatives of both parties, and shall be made in quadruplicate, three for Party A and one for Party B, which shall have the same legal effect
