In this case, the non-breaching Party may give the Breaching Party written notice that it has breached this Joint Venture Agreement and shall cure the breach within a reasonable time, which shall not exceed sixty (60) days of the date of such notice. If the breach has not been cured by the end of such sixty-day period, the non-breaching Party may request early dissolution of the Joint Venture.

11.2 Liability for Breach

In the event of a breach of this Joint Venture Agreement, the breaching Party shall indemnify the Joint Venture and other Parties in accordance with Article 10.3 of this Joint Venture Agreement. The rights set forth in Article 19 shall be in addition to any other remedies available to the non-breaching Party. The termination of this Joint Venture Agreement due to the exercise of such rights shall not relieve any Party of any obligations, nor does it relieve the breaching Party from its liability for damages to the non-breaching Party for breach of this Joint Venture Agreement. Waiver by the Performing Party of one or more default by the Breaching Party shall not deprive the Performing Party of its right to terminate this Agreement arising by reason of any subsequent default.

11.3 Indemnification by the Parties

Each Party agrees to reimburse, indemnify and hold harmless the Joint Venture and the other Party from and against any and all claims, actions, deficiencies, assessments, liabilities, losses, damages, costs, expenses, judgments and settlements, including reasonable legal fees, of any kind relating to or arising out of or in connection with or incidental to any breach of any representation or warranty of the Party under this Joint Venture Agreement or the failure of the Party to perform any of its obligations under this Joint Venture Agreement or in connection with any liability which results in losses to the Joint Venture or the other Party.

ARTICLE 12. CONFIDENTIALITY

Each Party hereby acknowledges and agrees that they and the other party each possess certain non-public confidential information (the "Confidential Information") and may also possess trade secret information (the "Trade Secret Information") (collectively the "Proprietary Information") regarding their business operations and development. The Parties agree that the Proprietary Information is secret and valuable to each of their respective businesses and the Parties have entered into this Joint Venture as a business relationship, through which they will each have access to another party's Proprietary Information. Each of the Parties desires to maintain the secret and private nature of any Proprietary Information given. "Receiving Party" refers to the Party that is receiving the Proprietary Information and "Disclosing Party" refers to the Party that is disclosing the Proprietary Information.

a. Confidential Information refers to any information which is confidential and commercially valuable to any of the Parties.

(1) The Confidential Information may be in the form of documents, techniques, methods, practices, tools, specifications, inventions, patents, trademarks, copyrights, equipment, algorithms, models, samples, software, drawings, sketches, plans, programs, power resources, power contract and other oral or written knowledge and secrets and may pertain to, but is not limited to, the fields of research and development, forecasting, marketing, personnel, customers, suppliers, intellectual property and finance including any other information which is confidential and commercially valuable to any of the Parties.

(2) Confidential Information may or may not be disclosed as such, through labeling, but is to be considered any information which ought to be treated as confidential under the circumstances through which it was disclosed.

b. Confidential Information shall not mean any information which:

(1) is known or available to the public at the time of disclosure or became known or available after disclosure through no fault of the Receiving Party;

(2) is already known, through legal means, to the Receiving Party;

(3) is given by the Disclosing Party to third parties, other than the Receiving Party, without any restrictions;

(4) is given to the Receiving Party by any third party who legally had the Confidential Information and the right to disclose it; or

(5) is developed independently by the Receiving Party and the Receiving Party can show such independent development.

c. "Trade Secret Information" shall be defined specifically as any formula, process, method, pattern, design or other information that is not known or reasonably ascertainable by the public, consumers, or competitors through which, and because of such secrecy, an economic or commercial advantage can be achieved.

d. The Parties hereby agree they shall:

(1) Not disclose the Proprietary Information via any unauthorized means to any third parties throughout the duration of this Agreement and the Parties' relationship with each other unless, in the case of Confidential Information, that third party is a service provider necessary for the Joint Venture and the third party service provider agrees to sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement mutually agreeable to each Party;

(2) Not disclose the Confidential Information via any unauthorized means to any third parties for a period of three(3) years following the termination of this Joint Venture Agreement;

(3) Not disclose the Trade Secret Information forever, or for as long as such information remains a trade secret under applicable law, whichever occurs first, to any third party at any time;

(4) Not use the Confidential Information or the Trade Secret Information for any purpose except those contemplated herein or expressly authorized by the Disclosing Party.

ARTICLE 13. PRIOR INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

In accordance with the terms and conditions of this Joint Venture Agreement, title and interest in and to intellectual property belonging to each of the Parties prior to this Joint Venture, including, but not limited to, plans, drawings, specifications, reports, advice, analyses, designs, methodologies, code, artwork, or any other intellectual property, registered or otherwise, shall remain with that Party throughout the duration of this Agreement and forever thereafter.

ARTICLE 14. THIRD PARTY LIABILITY

Each Party hereby agrees and acknowledges that their own liabilities, including debts and other financial obligations, shall remain their liabilities and shall not become the liabilities of the Joint Venture, nor shall any Party become liable for the liabilities of any other Party.

ARTICLE 15. DECISION DEADLOCK

The Parties will generally decide on the business decisions of the Joint Venture together, as well as any other management decisions to be made. However, in the event that the Parties cannot agree on a material issue related to the Joint Venture, this will be deemed a deadlock. If a deadlock occurs, any Party may offer to purchase the entirety of the Joint Venture from the other Party in writing, at a price mutually agreed-upon by both Parties. The price may be obtained through an external valuation.

ARTICLE 16. COMPETITION

No Party shall be permitted to engage in any competitive venture with this Joint Venture during the duration of this Joint Venture Agreement and the existence of the Joint Venture. This prohibition includes engaging in the employ of, acting as an independent contractor for, or otherwise providing business services to other organizations, companies or individuals who are or are potentially direct or indirect competitors of the Joint Venture.

ARTICLE 17. ARBITRATION

In case of a dispute between the Parties relating to or arising out of this Joint Venture Agreement, the Parties shall first attempt to resolve the dispute in good faith. If these resolution attempts fail, the Parties shall then submit the dispute to binding arbitration. The arbitration shall be conducted in the following state: New York. Each Party shall pay their own costs and fees. The Parties, in agreement with this subpart of this Joint Venture Agreement, waive any rights they may have to a jury trial in regard to arbitral claims.

ARTICLE 18. INSURANCE

The Joint Venture will obtain and maintain appropriate insurance for the particular industry the Joint Venture operates in.

ARTICLE 19. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

No Party shall be liable to any other Party in this Joint Venture Agreement, tort, negligence, breach of statutory duty or otherwise for any loss, damage, costs or expenses of any nature whatsoever incurred or suffered by that other Party of an indirect or consequential nature including without limitation any economic loss, data loss, loss of goodwill, or other loss of turnover, profits, or business.

ARTICLE 20 FORCE MAJEURE

20.1 Should any Party be prevented from performing its obligations under this Agreement by force majeure, such as earthquake, typhoon, flood, or other acts of nature, fire, explosion or other unforeseen event beyond the affected Party's reasonable control (an Event of Force Majeure), the affected Party shall give the other Parties written notice without delay, and within fifteen (15) days of the event provide detailed information about and documents evidencing the event (including documents from official authorities if applicable), explaining the reasons for its inability to perform, or for its delay in the performance of, all or part of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 21. GENERAL PROVISIONS

a. GOVERNING LAW: Both parties agree this agreement shall be governed, construed, and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without regard to its conflict of laws rules. Any action arising out of this Joint Venture Agreement shall be brought in the state or federal courts located in the New York and both parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of any such court.

b. LANGUAGE: All communications made or notices given pursuant to this Joint Venture Agreement shall be in the English or Chinese languages.

c. ASSIGNMENT: This Joint Venture Agreement, or the rights granted hereunder, may not be assigned, sold, leased or otherwise transferred in whole or part by any Party.

d. AMENDMENTS: This Joint Venture Agreement may only be amended in writing signed by both Parties.

e. NO WAIVER: None of the terms of this Joint Venture Agreement shall be deemed to have been waived by any act or acquiescence of any Party. Only an additional written agreement can constitute waiver of any of the terms of this Joint Venture Agreement between the Parties. No waiver of any term or provision of this Joint Venture Agreement shall constitute a waiver of any other term or provision or of the same provision on a future date. Failure of any Party to enforce any term of this Agreement shall not constitute waiver of such term or any other term.

f. SEVERABILITY: If any provision or term of this Joint Venture Agreement is held to be unenforceable, then this Joint Venture Agreement will be deemed amended to the extent necessary to render the otherwise unenforceable provision, and the rest of the Joint Venture Agreement, valid and enforceable. If a court declines to amend this Joint Venture Agreement as provided herein, the invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Joint Venture Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining terms and provisions, which shall be enforced as if the offending term or provision had not been included in this Joint Venture Agreement.

g. PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT: No Party will make any public announcement or disclosure about the existence of this Joint Venture Agreement or any of the terms herein without the prior written approval of the other Party or Parties.

h. ENTIRE AGREEMENT: This Joint Venture Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes any prior or contemporaneous understandings, whether written or oral.

i. HEADINGS: Headings to this Joint Venture Agreement are for convenience only and shall not be construed to limit or otherwise affect the terms of this Joint Venture Agreement.

j. COUNTERPARTS: This Joint Venture Agreement may be executed in counterparts, all of which shall constitute a single agreement.

k. NOTICES ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS PERMITTED: Any notice to be given under this Joint Venture Agreement shall be in writing and shall be sent by first class mail, air mail, or e-mail, to the address of the relevant Party set out of this Joint Venture Agreement, or other addresses as that Party may from time to time notify to the other Party in accordance with this clause.
